

International Workshop

Freedom of Expression in the Digital Ecosystem: From the “Wild Web” to a European Lex Informatica?

16-17 May 2022

Aula Giovanni Nocco, Luiss Campus at Via Parenzo 11, Rome

Monday, 16 May 2022

9:15 am Registration

9:30 am Welcome

Nicola Lupo
Luiss University

Presentation of the re:constitution Fellowship

Lazslo Detre
Scientific Advisor

Opening Remarks

Helle Krunke
University of Copenhagen

10:00 am General Introduction - Digital constitutional challenges in a changing global order

Oreste Pollicino
Bocconi University

Session A – Freedom of expression and social media:
toward a European legal framework

re:constitution Project Presentation

Social media as Two-Faced Janus in the constitutional sphere and the claim for a recharacterization

Ylenia Maria Citino
Luiss University

Keynote speech - The EU regulatory approach on audiovisuals and media services

Anna Herold
DG Connect European Commission

11:25 Paper Presentation

A European roadmap to define social media platforms

Berdien Van Der Donk
University of Copenhagen

From ‘dark patterns’ to information asymmetry and the repression of free choice

Mark Leiser
Leiden University

Discussant

Otto Pfersmann
EHESS, Institute for Advanced Studies in Social Sciences

12:25 Paper Presentation

Si vis Pacem para Bellum: Strategies to Tackle On-line Disinformation

Silvia Sassi
University of Florence

Freedom of expression privatized?

Regulating content moderation in the EU

Christophe Geiger
Luiss University

Bernd Justin Jütte
University College Dublin

Discussant

Giovanni Piccirilli
Luiss University

13:15 Working Lunch

Session B – Political speech, democracy and human rights in the digital ecosystem

14:10 re:constitution Project Presentation

Technology and democracy:
contribution of the Venice Commission

Simon Drugda
University of Copenhagen

Keynote speech - The role of the Venice Commission on democracy oversight through the internet

Cesare Pinelli
Sapienza University of Rome

15:15 Paper Presentation

Social Media Deplatforming: A Case for State Regulation

Christopher Phiri
University of Turku

How social media algorithms impact in our human rights?

Cecilia Celeste Danesi
University of Buenos Aires

Discussant

Cristina Fasone
Luiss University

16:10 Paper Presentation

The Facebook Oversight Board and the new challenges to freedom of expression on the web

Ludovica Durst
Sapienza University of Rome

The Facebook Oversight Board under appeal: assessing the process under European human rights standards

Juncal Montero Regules
Hasselt University

Discussant

Andrea Buratti
University of Rome Tor Vergata

17:05 End of the Session

10:30 Paper Presentation

The truth of the facts as a limit to freedom of expression in the digital ecosystem?

Giovanni Barozzi Reggiani
University of Sassari

The Constitutionality of a Transatlantic Digital Accord in the United States

Niranjan Nair Reghuvaran
University of Rome Tor Vergata

Discussant

Raffaele Bifulco
Luiss University

11:25 Paper Presentation

Online dispute resolution mechanisms for content moderation failures

Federica Casarosa
European University Institute

Infodemic and digital greenhouse effect

Matteo Caldironi
University of Modena and Reggio Emilia

Discussant

Nicola Lupo
Luiss University

12:20 Concluding Remarks

Giacomo Lasorella
AGCOM

13:00 End of the Workshop

Tuesday, 17 May 2022

Session C – Pluralism and privatized censorship: a heterocratic form of justice?

9:30 Opening Remarks and Chair

Daniele Gallo
Luiss University

Paper Presentation

Media freedom as part of the rule of law from European law and policy perspectives

Anna Wójcik
Polish Academy of Sciences

The platformised public sphere and the privatisation of censorship: considerations from comparative law

Matteo Monti
Luiss University

Discussant

Alessandro Nato
Luiss University

Conveners

Ylenia Maria Citino
Simon Drugda

Scientific Committee

Raffaele Bifulco
Andrea Buratti
Cristina Fasone
Daniele Gallo
Nicola Lupo
Otto Pfersmann
Giovanni Piccirilli

To follow the event online,
please register here.

To attend the event in person,
please register here.